"Fedor" was long ago made famous by Sarah Bernhardt on the spoken stage and by Leon Cagnietti in opera. It is that wonderful story of the man who wins back his wife to love, while his business love for her becomes the bitterest animosity. This photoplay will become one of the great screen classics, so see it early. It will give you something to talk about.

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN in "HER MAN"
The famous beauty of stage and screen bears the clarion call of the clan and in one moment casts aside the veneer of generations of civilization and fights like a naked savage, blood hot in her eye, and her finger on the trigger. Taken from the great novel, "The Battle Cry," by Charles Neville Buck. "Her Man" is a story of guns, mountains and "moonshine." But it is not a cheap melodrama. It is one of the big pictures of the year. "Her Man" was directed by Ralph W. Ince.

Be Held at St. John's Church This Evening

The annual parish meeting of St. John's Episcopal church, which was suspended for the Monday night, was rescheduled until Sunday at 8 o'clock on account of the absence from the city of Bishop F. H. Howden. Bishop Howden arrived last night and will preside at the meeting tonight. A number of unusually important matters are to come up at this meeting, which will be held in Guild Hall, in the rear of the church, the church building being too badly damaged to be used.

IN THE EVENING HERALD
A NEW AND DIFFERENT STORY FOR WOMEN
"ONE WOMAN'S WAY"

The Story of a Girl's Fight for Success.

By CAROLYN BEECHER

Author of "Maid and Wife," "The Girl I Left Behind Me," etc.

New conditions created by the war have brought about a remarkable advance in the "economic freedom of women." Whether women can be successful in the field of business has long been a problem that is now being put to a severe test. Will she remain attractively feminine? Will she be as good a mother and home maker? Can she compete with the man disciplined by generations of business methods?

These are some of the new problems, along with the world-wide problems of love, courtship, and marriage, that Olive Morrison, the heroine of this story, has to face. A long training in war work gives her an unusual start. Necessity compels her to make her own way and her ambitions spur her on. The story of her work and her progress makes not only very interesting reading; it is also a great lesson for all girls who want or who need to make their own way in the world.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO HAVE CHARGE OF WAR VICTIMS' FUND

Germeymen of Albuquerque Are Selected to Direct Coming Campaign in Bernalillo County;
Hope to Get $2,700.

A. B. Stevens, in charge of the drive for the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief, announces today that a committee to direct the campaign in Bernalillo county, which begins on January 12, has been appointed. Arrangements for the campaign are now being completed.

Following is the committee named: Rev. C. O. Beckman, Rev. A. M. Knudsen, Rev. Charles H. McLean, Rev. George H. Morrison, Rev. A. P. Wilson, Rev. F. B. Howden, Rev. F. G. Roberts, Rev. H. S. Davidson, Rev. A. L. Bowman, Rev. George J. Sulzer, Rev. S. J. Moore and Rabbi Morris Bergman.

In the coming campaign the entire country is asked to give $2,000,000 to sustain the lives of 2,950,000 Christians and Jews through the winter through their return to a new life free from religious and political persecutions.

All government approval and execution is given to the committee's work. All funds are transmitted through the department of state. The shipping board and all consular agents of the United States government give every possible aid to this work. There are 1,850,000 people, 1,000 of whom are orphans, all in desperate need. The estimated expenditure for the campaign for the next year is $1 per person. Catholics, Protestants and Jews alike, have been the victims of Turkish suppression and of Turkish government orders to exterminate or drive from their homes and industries every other people in the Near East. Catholics, Protestants and Jews, it is pointed out, all unite in seeking help within the power of the American committee for relief in the Near East.

ORTIZ OF VEGAS TO BE WARDEN OF THE STATE PRISON

Governor Larrasolo Agrees to Relieve Warden Thomas Hughes on February 1st; Las Vegas Man to Succeed to Post, Belief.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT TO THE HERALD
Santa Fe, N. M.—Gov. Larrasolo let it be known today that he has received and consented to a request from Warden Thomas Hughes of the state penitentiary that he be relieved of his duties at the prison on February 1st in order that he may return to his home in Albuquerque to resume active business. Mr. Hughes is president of the Central Printing company and will enter the active management of the Evening Herald and associated publishing activities of the Central Printing company. Mr. Hughes was not so anxious for re-appointment to the prison position.

It is quite probable, however, although lacking official confirmation, that Governor Larrasolo has determined to appoint Eddie Ortiz of Las Vegas to succeed Mr. Hughes. Mr. Ortiz is one of the leading citizens of San Miguel county and has held a number of important county offices including sheriff and sheriff's office manager. For a number of terms. So far as is known, Mr. Ortiz has filed the only formal application for the appointment. Governor Larrasolo would make no statement as to this or other appointments requiring confirmation by the legislature, having indicated that he would make no statement regarding them until the legislature is in session.
